ENTITLED/LICENSED Livingroom is delighted to introduce this substantial 18th-century home situated in a rural position within the St. Helier and St. John border and only a five-minute drive to the local shops. Having undergone recent renovation and refurbishment, the beautiful property enjoys modern-day conveniences such as an air source heat pump and increased insulation throughout the roof and walls. The well-proportioned accommodation comprises an entrance hall with access to the dining room and sitting room (both with functional fireplaces), kitchen, utility and cloakroom. On the following two levels, you will find five double bedrooms (three en-suites with one dressing room), a house bathroom, and a playroom/store. Externally, there's a lovely South-facing garden bordering a newly planted cider apple orchard, a double garage and parking for three vehicles. An opportunity not to be missed! Pets considered—available early December. Please contact our Lettings Team at Livingroom...
